Letter on Convention, and Our Reply

Editor The Star: I feel that selecting a man to bear the Democratic party standard banner is a very serious business, and from watching the convention in Florida I came to the conclusion, as I'm sure many others did, that 18-20 year olds have no place on the delegate list; in fact, if the majority are as the ones in Miami, then they are not mature enough to vote at all.

Any person, regardless of color, who goes to a convention to help select a man to lead America four years and depends entirely on their Master to tell them how and what to vote for and against, has no place on the party nomination list.

I am sick, a very sick man, after watching the herlings go do their master's bidding. If that is democracy, the kind we need to lead our country, then may our God have mercy on this continent.

When, before this convention, did a candidate dictate to the delegates in such a manner, where no one else could be heard. It was the most disgraceful act any man could pull. I would not allow my name to be mentioned as VIP on such a ticket, would you?

We need to return at once to the old fashion kind of nomination convention.

I sure hope the Republican party can do better; if not, let's elect our president by popular vote, or start a third party, which is against my belief; but can you suggest a better way after watching this convention?

Are we to let our country be run by one man alone?

I'm for Democracy, the kind where a man can think and act from his belief and not for the candidate to dictate every thought they have.

A. D. JONES JR.

July 15, 1972
Rt. 1, Box 44-A
Washington, Ark. 71862

I think Mr. Jones' letter reflects the feelings of a great many Democrats, if not an actual majority. My own opinion was expressed in this column July 11, written just one hour before the withdrawal of Humphrey and Muskie, when it was already clear that McGovern would be nominated.

This is a tough break for the Democratic party—but it's not the first time a national convention has been stampeded by manipulation. Sometimes it is by manipulation in the convention itself; frequently there is a manipulation of the seating of delegates through the credentials committee, as was the case in Miami Beach.

There was a gross manipulation of the convention that nominated the late Franklin D. Roosevelt in Chicago 40 years ago. A pro-Roosevelt group seized control of the public address system and stampeded the delegates.

Miami Beach probably will prove a Democratic disaster. But it is scarcely greater than the one that fell upon the Republicans in 1964. In that one pro-Goldwater delegates shouted down all opposition. Goldwater won the convention battle but lost the election war.

It's very much the same picture this year, with McGovern much further to the left than ill-fated Goldwater was to the right.

Sales tax charge to be protested

The Hope City Directors, at their meeting last Thursday, decided to protest a planned sales tax charge by the State Revenue Department on free service being rendered by the city utility system.

The Hope Water and Light Plant furnishes free water and electric service to all schools, city parks, and playgrounds and all municipal uses, including street lighting, according to Garland Medders, city manager. Free service is also furnished to the Hempstead County Library and the Chamber of Commerce. A recent audit by the State Revenue Department of the city's utility operations revealed that the city has not paid sales tax on the free service, which amounts to about $245,000 since June 1, 1969.

According to Medders, the state plans to charge sales tax on the service, and the action will be protested by the city "since we cannot agree whether service furnished free should be subject to sales tax," Medders said.

The directors also discussed recommendations of the Insurance Services Office, on the location and equipping of an additional fire station for the north side of Hope. The state office recommended that the sub-station have two men on duty at all times and that the station be equipped with a 1,000-gallon-per-minute pumper.

New laws in Vietnam

SAIGON (AP) — President Nguyen Van Thieu has put into effect new emergency laws which give his government broad police powers, prohibit demonstrations and strikes, and ban the publication of news or photographs considered detrimental to national security.

The new measures also include a crackdown on violators of curfew hours, give police the authority to raid homes and confiscate materials considered dangerous to national defense, allow for the shooting of lawbreakers, and permit tighter surveillance of those who oppose government policy.

McGovern to vacation in Black Hills

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. George McGovern, the Democratic presidential nominee, flew today to the Black Hills of his native South Dakota for two weeks of rest, staff reshuffling and strategic planning for the fall campaign against President Nixon.

He left National Airport at 10:35 a.m. EDT on a chartered plane for Rapid City.

The vacation spot picked out weeks ago in anticipation of McGovern's victory in last week's Miami Beach convention is a lodge at Sylvan Lake in Custer State Park, near the gold rush town of Custer, south of famous Mount Rushmore.

The South Dakota senator will be accompanied by a small personal staff. Starting later this week, his top political advisors, financial planners, and his running mate, Sen. Thomas F. Eagleton, of Missouri, will come to the lodge for conferences.

The shape of McGovern's campaign organization is largely settled.

Gary Hart, the 35-year-old Denver lawyer who managed the senator's drive for the Democratic presidential nomination, will head the organization, with George Cunningham, a McGovern aide for 17 years and now his administrative assistant, as deputy.

The three regional coordinators are expected to be Eli Segal, who managed McGovern's California campaign; Harold Himmelman, number two man in the Ohio primary; and Rick Stearns, who supervised the senator's efforts in non-primary states. Their exact roles are scheduled to be worked out later in the week when Hart and Frank Mankiewicz, the senator's national political director until now, return from a brief Virgin Islands vacation.

Mankiewicz and Frederick G. Dutton, who joined McGovern in California and has been at his side since, are scheduled to be the top traveling advisers.

Junction 4 & I-30

Holiday Inn construction planned here

A 150-unit Holiday Inn will be constructed at the intersection of State Highway 4 and Interstate 30 in the near future, according to Bobby Dowd of Texarkana, one of the investors in the project.

Dowd, owner of Dowd's Furniture Company in Texarkana, told the Star today that the franchise for the Holiday Inn had been secured and work on the $1,600,000 building should begin within 30 days.

The unit will be located on a four-acre tract just north of I-30, on property recently purchased from George Peck, a former resident of Hope, Dowd said.

The Holiday Inn will house a convention center, restaurant and will be landscaped, Dowd said. Hope was picked for the site "because of the amount of traffic, both north-south and east-west," he said. "We know that Hope is growing and the amount of traffic that passes through the area will justify the investment."

Bombers, ships zero fire on North Vietnam

By GEORGE ESPER
Associated Press Writer

SAIGON (AP) — Nearly 100 U.S. B52 bombers and a naval task force of more than a dozen cruisers and destroyers blasted North Vietnamese positions on both sides of the demilitarized zone today in some of the heaviest bombardments of the war.

The raids were in support of a 20,000-man South Vietnamese counteroffensive on the northern front. They had the two-fold objective of destroying North Vietnamese troops and supplies already on the battleground and cutting off reinforcements and war materials reportedly moving south.

The Saigon command reported light fighting on the edges of Quang Tri, the provincial capital which fell to the North Vietnamese May 1. It said South Vietnamese paratroopers driving from the East had inched their way to within 200 to 300 yards of the Citadel, the 19th century fortress in the heart of the city.

A dozen B52s struck north of the demilitarized zone on both sides of the port city of Dong Hoi against elements of two North Vietnamese divisions. U.S. military sources said the troops were on the move southward, presumably to join two badly battered divisions in Quang Tri province.

More than 80 giant Stratofortresses struck to the North, West, South and Southwest of Quang Tri city, dropping about 2,500 tons of bombs on North Vietnamese positions.

The U.S. Navy said the destroyer Shelton destroyed nearly 30 North Vietnamese emplacements and triggered 10 secondary explosions in bombardment near Quang Tri city. Other ships of the 13-vessel task force firing from offshore included the guided missile cruiser Oklahoma City, flagship of the 7th Fleet, and the destroyer escort Hepburn.

Another task force made up of the destroyers Robison, Hammer, Warrington and Hull bombarded transshipment points and storage areas above the DMZ. The 7th Fleet said the Hull and Robison also destroyed two boatloads of supplies taken off freighters—presumed to be Chinese—at a point southwest of Hon La island, about 30 miles northwest of Dong Hoi. The freighters were not attacked.

The U.S. Command reported that American fighter-bombers flew more than 240 strikes against North Vietnam on Sunday. All of the raids were well below Hanoi in the southern half of the country.

Bobby bouncing back in board battle

REYKJAVIK (AP) — World chess champion Boris Spassky resigned the third game against Bobby Fischer today only five minutes after the clock was switched on to resume their adjourned game.

The American challenger, after keeping the match in suspense with protests against TV and movie cameras, forced the start of the third game Sunday to a private room offstage.

Spassky threw the competition into doubt early today by saying he would refuse to play again in the private room. Chief Referee Lothar Schmid announced shortly after noon, however, that the adjourned game would go on in the main hall where the 24-game match began last Tuesday.

Fischer had said that the cameras in the main exhibition hall of the Sports Palace disturbed him.

The opening of Fischer's 41st move was the signal for the resumption of play.

The 29-year-old Brooklynite backed down on a threat to fly home Sunday and appeared for the third game in a small upstairs room of the Reykjavik sports hall. Spassky, 35, playing the white pieces, had already made his first move.

Fighting to overcome the Russian's 2-0 lead, Fischer forced Spassky to the defensive midway in the 5-hour, 18-minute session. At adjournment he was in a position to threaten the Russian's king. At the pause, each player had his king, queen and one bishop remaining while Fischer had six pawns to Spassky's five.

Isaac Kashdan, the international grandmaster analyzing the match for The Associated Press, said Fischer had excellent winning chances. He said in a clash of grandmasters, the one pawn advantage could be decisive.

Spassky won their opening game at Reykjavik last week and was declared winner of the second by forfeit when Fischer failed to appear because he objected to hidden television cameras filming the match.

Officials overruled the American's appeal against the forfeit, and until the last minute it was uncertain if Fischer would continue. He and two lawyers assisting him in Iceland had seats booked on a Sunday afternoon flight to New York, but they did not leave. Instead, at Fischer's insistence, the match was moved to the small room and the audience of paying fans in the big sports hall downstairs watched on closed circuit television. Apparently Fischer had no objection to that TV equipment.

Spassky's aides described the offstage room as a "chess cupboard."

Candidate attacks Boyle

EVARTS, Ky. (AP) — United Mine Workers presidential candidate Arnold Miller said Sunday that UAW president W. A. "Tony" Boyle paid two union officials full salaries while they were in jail charged in the murders of Joseph A. "Jokey" Yablonski, his wife and daughter.

Miller, the candidate of the dissident Miners for Democracy (MFD) faction of the UMW, said he has filed a protest with the U.S. Department of Labor concerning payments of Albert Pass and William Prater.

Miller told a rally of about 250 working and retired miners that Pass, a union executive board member from Middlesboro, Ky., received $958.33 in gross pay for the two-week period ending June 30.

During that time Pass was in a Washington, D.C., jail, Miller said.

Miller did not say exactly what Prater allegedly drew while jailed. He said, however, Prater got $12,950 in salary in 1971 and $10,521 in expenses while Pass got $22,000 plus $8,434 in expenses.

Pass and Prater were arrested on murder charges in connection with the Yablonski slayings. Prater is expected to go on trial for his alleged role in the killings this fall. Prater, of LaFollette, Tenn., is field representative for UMW District 19.

Income is best in history of U.S., or is it?

WASHINGTON (AP) — The midpoint of national family income went over $10,000 last year for the first time in U.S. history, but inflation eliminated all the gain in purchasing power, the Census Bureau said today.

According to the bureau, of the 53.3 million families in the United States, 27.6 million or 51.7 per cent received income of $10,000 or more in 1971.

The bureau figured that median family income, or the middle point of family income, was $10,285 last year. The figure is not an average.

A year earlier median family income was $9,870. Purchasing power was unchanged because of rising prices, the bureau said.

The bureau said there were 9.9 million families or 18.5 per cent with incomes between $7,000 and $10,000, 6 million families or 11.2 per cent between $5,000 and $7,000, and 9.8 million families or 18.5 per cent with incomes below $5,000.

The midpoint of annual income for black families was $6,440. This was about 60 per cent of the middle income for white families, or $10,670.

In a report last week, the bureau said the number of Americans living below the poverty level was essentially unchanged in 1971 over 1970.

That report showed that the official poverty level rose from $3,968 in 1970 to $4,137 because of inflation.

The number of people living below the poverty level last year was 25.6 million compared with 25.4 million a year earlier. Because of sampling errors, the bureau said, there is no statistical difference between the two numbers.

Pravda says U.S. faking withdrawal

MOSCOW (AP) — Pravda accused the United States today of faking its withdrawal from Vietnam and called for peace negotiations on the basis of Communist proposals.

"There is no Pentagon withdrawal whatsoever from Vietnam," the article continued.

"American units are simply moving to other positions," commentator Vitaly Korionov wrote in the Soviet Communist party newspaper.

He said the missions of troops removed from Vietnam were being assumed by U.S. forces in other parts of the Pacific area.

"But the courageous Vietnamese people and patriots of Laos and Cambodia have inexhaustible will for victory," the article continued.

"The facts show ever more convincingly that the Pentagon will not be able to get a military solution to the problem in Vietnam. The only way to a peace settlement is the way of negotiations, the effective basis of which is provided by the world-known proposals of the Provisional Revolutionary Government of the Republic of South Vietnam and the Democratic Republic of Vietnam."

Church updating to continue under Demetrius' reign

By RODNEY PRIDER
Associated Press Writer

ISTANBUL (AP) — Metropolitan Demetrius, the new Ecumenical Patriarch of the Eastern Orthodox Church elected Sunday, is expected to lean heavily on the advice of Metropolitan Meliton, whom the Turkish government blackballed.

Demetrius, 58, will be enthroned as Ecumenical Patriarch and Archbishop of Constantinople in St. George's Church on Tuesday. As archbishop of Constantinople, his patriarchate includes the Orthodox churches in Western Europe and the Greek Orthodox Church in America.

Demetrius succeeds Patriarch Athenagoras I, who died July 7 at the age of 86. During his 24 years as the symbolic head of Eastern Orthodoxy, Athenagoras worked constantly for reunification with the Roman Catholic and Protestant churches and for closer relations among the 15 independent Orthodox churches.

Demetrius in his enthronement address Tuesday is expected to announce his dedication to the goals of his predecessor. Athenagoras had planned a Great Synod of Orthodoxy to update the church and draw it together, and his successor is believed certain to go ahead with this project.

Demetrius was said to have been favored for the throne by Meliton, the dean of the Holy Synod which elects the patriarchs, and informed sources said in most matters Demetrius would be guided by him. Meliton is also a strong advocate of church unity and an outspoken progressive.

Meliton had been considered the leading candidate to succeed Athenagoras, but the Turkish government struck him from the list of acceptable candidates, apparently because it considered him too strong. Demetrius by contrast is essentially a pastoral cleric, with little experience in matters of state, and has been a metropolitan and archbishop only five months.

Three metropolitans were nominated in the election Sunday: Demetrius, Nicholas of Ancone and Gabriel of Colonia. On Feb. 15, 1972 he was appointed metropolitan archbishop of Imbros and Tenedos, tiny islands in the Aegean Sea. A theological scholar and a former teacher of classical Greek, he is described as self-effacing and of great spirituality.

Court agrees with decision by chancellor

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The state Supreme Court, in a 4-3 decision, ruled today that Max Brown, sheriff and collector of Chicot County, should not pay expenses of the sheriff's office from fees charged for the collection of school taxes.

The court refused, however, to enter judgment against the sheriff for the sums used to pay the expenses of the sheriff's office.

The ruling agreed in both respects with a decision made by Chancellor James Merritt in a suit that had been filed by nine individuals and the school districts of Dermott, Lakeside Euroda and Chicot County.

The suit said that the account was so voluminous and complicated that plaintiffs in the case could not state with certainty how much money from school tax collection fees had been expended on sheriff's office expenses but that they believed the amount to be $25,752. The amounts by district were listed in the suit as $4,840.89 for the Dermott district, $8,715.95 for the Lakeside District, $10,224.48 for the Euroda district and $1,605.82 for the county district.

Gangland war blamed in killing of Mafia figure

NEW YORK (AP) — Sifting theories and evidence, police experts today sought to fit the slaying of top Mafia figure Thomas "Tommy Ryan" Eboli into the complex pattern of a continuing gangland war.

Eboli, 61, was found sprawled on a sidewalk early Sunday in the quiet Crown Heights section of Brooklyn, far from his usual haunts in New Jersey and Manhattan. There were five bullet holes in his face and neck.

The killing was at least the 15th gangland slaying since the June 28, 1971 wounding of Joseph A. Colombo Sr., identified by authorities as the head of the Profaci Cosa Nostra family in Brooklyn.

Investigators concluded that Eboli was shot as he sat in a car, probably his own late-model Cadillac, then struggled out and collapsed on the sidewalk. "He must have been lured over here," said one detective.

Witnesses told police they heard shots and saw flashes near a truck that went by at the time. The truck, apparently stolen, was found about a block away abandoned with its engine running.

Police also found a stolen car with an m-3 machine gun in its rear seat. The gun had not been fired and detectives theorized that it had been a backup weapon.

The car Eboli had been in was gone when police arrived and they broadcast an alarm for the vehicle. In the right hand pocket of Eboli's jacket was more than $2,000 in cash, mostly in $100 bills.

Despite the strong indications that Eboli had been "hit" by mob gunmen, detectives said there was no evidence that he had been feuding lately with fellow members of his Genovese underworld family.

"Most of the time when these fellows get in trouble with each other, it's because they're starting to get greedy—and there was no sign that Tommy was doing that," said one official.

Federal authorities have identified Eboli as an underboss in the Genovese family while the late Vito Genovese himself, known as the "Boss of Bosses," was in prison for bankrolling a narcotics smugging operation. After Genovese's death in prison in 1969, Eboli's poor health prevented him from gaining the top spot and reportedly much of the family's traditional territory was siphoned off by other families.

Workers mobilize in Vietnam

HONG KONG (AP) — North Vietnam has ordered all its workers mobilized "to serve in any capacity or any mission assigned them," and warned that those who disobey will have to perform up to two years' forced labor.

Radio Hanoi said today the mobilization was necessary to "meet the present serious situation now facing the nation," an obvious reference to the damage done by intensive U.S. air raids.

"All citizens who have the strength and the ability to work must absolutely carry out the state mobilization orders and serve in any capacity or any mission assigned to them by the state," North Vietnam's ruling State Council declared.

MR. AND MRS. RODNEY BOBO

Pamela Lynne Powell weds Rodney Bobo

Miss Pamela Lynne Powell and Rodney Harold Bobo were united in marriage, in a candle light ceremony, Friday evening, July 7, at the Mt. Nebo Baptist Church near Patmos. The Rev. Lane Garner of Hope and Rev. Kenneth Bobo of Memphis officiated in the double ring ceremony.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Rod Powell and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Bobo, all of Hope.

The nuptial music was presented by Edward Cooper. Mrs. Linda Brown sang, "We've Only Just Begun," and Rev. Gordon Renshaw sang "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white satin and lace. It featured an empire waistline and full lace sleeves with bands of lace embroidered with pearls, fastened by tiny satin covered buttons. The bodice was lace over satin with a row of close-set covered buttons from neck line to waist. The satin skirt was softly gathered in back, the front panel was trimmed with lace Medallions and pearls. The train was of lace and illusion over which flowed long satin streamers. Her elbow-length veil of illusion was held by a satin bow. She carried a cascade of white Fleur D'Amour.

Paige Powell served her sister as maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Karen Britt and Sherry Burns. They wore floor length gowns of green dotted Swiss, fashioned with short puffed sleeves and jewel necklines on an empire bodice. They wore picture hats of white straw, trimmed in illusion and lace, with green satin bow and streamers. They carried nose gays of yellow and white daisy pom-poms.

Tina Powell, cousin of the bride, was the flower girl. She wore a dress identical to the bridesmaids, and carried a white basket of rose petals. Scott Dean was the ring bearer. Becky Burke and Doug Cherry were candlelighters. Annette Dean was seated at the brides book.

Randy Bobo acted as best man for his brother, with Wayne Rosenbaum and Larry York as groomsmen.

Ushers were Mike Murphy and Tommy Dean. David and Waymond Powell dispensed the rice bags.

After a short trip the couple are at home in Hope, where he is employed.

News services available to farmers

Miller, Hempstead, and Nevada County farmers are now eligible for cotton classification and market news services for the 1972 season, according to R. M. Brownlee, officer in charge of the Little Rock Cotton Classing Office, Agricultural Marketing Service, USDA.

The group application for these services was submitted by John W. Measel, county extension agent; Raymond Caswell will serve as president of the Cotton Improvement Group; James B. Mills will serve as group representative; and John W. Measel will be alternate representative.

The cotton classification and market news services are provided for farmers under the Smith-Doxey Act passed in 1937. The Little Rock Office classed samples representing 5,481 bales of cotton for the 470 cotton farmers in the Miller, Hempstead, and Nevada Counties Cotton Improvement Group under this program in the 1971-72 crop year.

B & PW annual picnic

In a grove of trees behind the Kenneth McMurrough home on the Rosston Road, the Hope B & PW Club had its picnic on Thursday, July 13. Red and white checkered cloths were used on the tables that were centered with red candles. Hurricane lamps were used in the area where supper was served to 35.

From hamburgers to homemade peach ice cream, cake and cookies the meal was served to members and guests with Kenneth McMurrough acting as chief cook. After supper, numerous games and contests were played with nice prizes going to the winners.

Club President Charlene Wiggins had charge of a short business meeting and welcomed the members and 11 guests, Sharon Dean, Robin McLelland, Thana Shoen, Helen Hatch, Jerri Pruden, Susan James, Mary Roy Moses, Hazel Castle, Jo Ann Woodard, Phillis Dillard, and Georgia Smiley of Cary, O.

Arrangements were made by the finance committee, Velora Bright, Dee McMurrough, Odell Collier, Opal Daniel, Opal Hervey, Belle Mudgett, and Margie Vickers.

A Change in Permanents

Permanents which created the frizzy heads of the '50s have taken on a whole new look. Now permanents are for giving body to limp or extra-fine hair, a little curl to long straight hair or for keeping those short curly locks in place. There are many reliable home permanent products on the market and you'll get the effect you want as long as you carefully follow the instructions. But if you have problem hair, it would be better to have it done the first time by professionals.

Politics can make marriage interesting

By ANN BLACKMAN
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — Politics may not improve a bad marriage, but it can make a good one more interesting, says Louella Dirksen, widow of the colorful Republican senator from Illinois, Everett McKinley Dirksen.

Mrs. Dirksen, commenting on recent stories that politics and marriage often spell divorce, said political wives must cater to their husbands' erratic time schedules to keep the marriage together.

"If your husband is going to be in politics, you have to make the adjustment," she said, admitting her views might be considered old-fashioned and counter to many women's liberationists.

"It's lonely at times," she said in an interview, "but the main thing is you have to be flexible. You have to have faith, but it pays big in the long run."

Mrs. Dirksen has written a book, "The Honorable Mr. Marigold," which chronicles her 42 years of marriage with Dirksen who died almost three years ago while he was minority leader of the Senate. She refers to her husband as "Mr. Marigold" because of his long-time effort to have the marigold named America's national flower.

The book is a love story that highlights the couple's 37 years in Washington's political arena. Like many politicians' wives, Mrs. Dirksen said she had sole responsibility for disciplining their only child, Denise, and many of her days were spent alone.

"There were many times during Everett's first term in office that my heart ached for him," she writes. "Being so new and naive in the game of national politics, I was shocked, appalled, and hurt at the vilifications my husband received for not going along with President Roosevelt's sweeping New Deal program."

Mrs. Dirksen suggests that young politician's wives should seek out the wife of one of their husband's colleagues for first-hand information on what makes Washington tick.

Brewers rally from slump

By HAL BOCK
Associated Press Sports Writer
When you're hot, you're hot and when you're not, you're probably the Milwaukee Brewers.

The baseball Brewers were stuck in one of their cold spells Sunday—six losses in eight games including a 1-0 two-hitter at the hands of California's Rudy May in the first game of their doubleheader.

What's worse is that the second game was also 1-0 in California's favor as Milwaukee came to bat in the bottom of the eighth inning. The Brewers weren't cold—they were frozen. Clearly, it was time for action and so Manager Del Crandall used his old pinch runner for a pinch runner move.

The double pinch runner strategy paid off—helped considerably by George Scott's two-run single—as the Brewers rallied for a 2-1 victory and a split of the doubleheader.

Elsewhere in the American League Sunday, Oakland rapped New York 5-2, Detroit shut out Kansas City 2-0, Boston whipped Minnesota 6-1, Texas defeated Cleveland 3-2 in 12 innings and Baltimore downed Chicago 6-1 in the rain-abbreviated first game of a scheduled doubleheader. The nightcap was washed out.

In the National League, Pittsburgh swept a doubleheader from Houston, 3-2 in both games, Chicago dropped Atlanta 5-3, Cincinnati took St. Louis 4-1, San Francisco ripped Philadelphia 10-7, San Diego dropped New York 7-3 and Los Angeles trimmed Montreal 4-2. Starter Lloyd Allen and reliever Rick Clark had limited the Brewers to just four hits in the nightcap when pinch hitter Ron Theobald opened the eighth inning with a single. Here Crandall started working. Pinch Runner Number One.

"When the first guy up in the inning singled, I didn't want to use a player we might need later, so I sent in pitcher Skip Lockwood," Crandall explained.

The situation cried for a bunt and Rick Auerbach delivered it. What's more, Auerbach beat it out. And here comes Pinch Runner Number Two, not for Auerbach, but for Lockwood.

"We get men on first and second and this is or chance to win the ball game," said Crandall, "so I sacrifice a little speed at second base for experience by sending in Bob Heise to run for Lockwood."

Brook Davis followed with another bunt single and Scott delivered with his game-winning two-run single.

Questioned about the double pinch runner strategy move afterwards, Crandall shrugged it off, saying, "It worked pretty good, that's all I know."

Oakland completed a sweep of its four-game series at New York and opened a 7½-game lead over Chicago in the AL's West Division.

The A's got home runs from Joe Rudi and Mike Epstein to build a comfortable early lead over the Yankees and were able to ride out John Ellis' two-run homer in the bottom of the ninth.

In the East, Detroit maintained its one-game lead over Baltimore, shutting out Kansas City while the Orioles were knocking off Chicago.

Norm Cash and Aurelio Rodriguez tagged home runs, giving rookie Bill Slayback all the offense he needed to defeat the Royals.

Slayback scattered five hits for his first major league shut-out. Cash's homer was his 17th and Rodriguez hit his fourth.

Boog Powell bombed his third homer in four games for two runs and Brooks Robinson also drove in two as Baltimore kept pace with the Tigers by knocking off Chicago.

The game was called in the seventh inning when a rain squall soaked Baltimore's Municipal Stadium.

Powell's ninth homer of the season came in the sixth inning and helped Jim Palmer gain the victory. Palmer, 13-4, allowed only three hits and one unearned run.

Marty Pattin hurled a four-hitter and Danny Cater and Reggie Smith crashed home runs, helping Boston beat Minnesota.

Pattin, who hurled a one-hitter in his last start, improved his record to 7-8, besting Bert Blyleven, 9-11.

Dave Nelson's 12th inning single scored Lenny Randle with Texas' winning run as the Rangers edged Cleveland.

Speedy Crown is new champ

WESTBURY, N.Y. (AP) — After eight long years the United States again has the world trotting champion in Speedy Crown.

The 4-year-old colt sped the last quarter in 29 2/5 in winning the $125,000 Roosevelt International Trot Saturday night by three-quarters of a length over Fresh Yankee of Canada.

The French might be pardoned a dissent to the ascent of Speedy Crown to the title his daddy, Speedy Scot, last won for America in 1964.

Une de Mai, the defending champion mare from France, was ordered scratched by the New York State Harness Racing Commission because of "questions raised as to the horse's fitness to race."

Driver Howard Beissinger took Speedy Crown to the lead in the first quarter-mile. The colt stayed there the rest of the way in 2:35 1/5 for the 1¼ miles in winning his sixth in a row.

Fresh Yankee lodged two challenges, but could not overtake Speedy Crown, although clearly the better over Flower Child, the second United States entry who finished third.

Speedy Crown went off the 6-5 favorite to 7-5 for Fresh Yankee, and earned a purse of $82,500. That increased his 1972 earnings to $176,002 and his career bankroll to $365,344 for his owners, the Antonacci brothers, Tom and Frank, of Plainview, N.Y.

Elsewhere veteran driver Stanley Dancer steered Albatross to his 10th straight victory with a 1:57 3/5 mile in the $16,000 Bret Hanover Pace at Saratoga Saturday.

The victory made Albatross the leading money winner pacer with earnings of $1,001,808.

Pattin, who hurled a one-hitter in his last start, improved his record to 7-8, besting Bert Blyleven, 9-11.

Dave Nelson's 12th inning single scored Lenny Randle with Texas' winning run as the Rangers edged Cleveland.

Giants defeated the Philadelphia Phillies 10-7 and the Chicago Cubs downed the Atlanta Braves 5-3.

In the American League, the Oakland A's tripped the New York Yankees 5-2; the Detroit Tigers turned back the Kansas City Royals 2-0; the Boston Red Sox walloped the Minnesota Twins 6-1; the Baltimore Orioles defeated the Chicago White Sox 6-1 in the first game of a doubleheader cut short in the seventh inning by rain; the California Angels blanked the Milwaukee Brewers 1-0 in the first game of a twin bill before losing the second, 2-1 and Texas edged Cleveland 3-2 in 12 innings.

The Pirates' first-game victory was fashioned with the help of speed, combined with that Tartan-Turf surface. The contest was tied 2-2 when Willie Stargell opened the 10th inning with a walk. Stargell raced to third when Sanguillen rifled a sharp single through the infield.

After Rennie Stennett was walked intentionally to load the bases, Bob Robertson was struck on the right wrist with a Fred Gladding pitch, forcing in the winning run.

In the second game, the Pirates took a 1-0 lead with an unearned run in the first inning—then used that tailormade combination of speed and playing-surface again to build their lead.

The Pirates scored their eventual winning runs off Houston's Don Wilson in the fourth when Al Oliver singled and scored on Stargell's double.

Leonard's Lola finishes first

By BLOYS BRITT

Old pro Joe Leonard had known all along that he didn't have the fastest car in Sunday's 200-mile race for Grand National cars of the National Association For Stock Car Auto Racing at Trenton, N.J. His race speed was 114.03 m.p.h. Bobby Isaac was second in a Dodge, Richard Petty third in a Plymouth, Fred Lorenzen fourth in a Chevrolet and Cecil Gordon fifth in a Ford.

It was Allison's fifth triumph of the season and his $6,106 payoff boosted his season's money total to $133,266, tops on the NASCAR circuit.

Emerson Fittipaldi, the Brazilian star, beat Jackie Stewart to the wire by five seconds to win the British Grand Prix for Formula One cars.

Fittipaldi, who drives a Lotus works car, now has a firm grip on his campaign to win the world driving title that Stewart hates to give up. It was Fittipaldi's third triumph of the season and he now leads Stewart in the points race 43-27.

LEO DUROCHER, the winningest active manager in the major leagues, is closing in on the 2,000-victory mark. (His teams had won 1,065 games and lost 1,570 entering the 1972 season.) He began his managing career in 1889 with the Brooklyn Dodgers, whose 1944 satin night uniform he modeled at left. Durocher managed the New York Giants, above, from 1948 to 1955, winning two National League pennants, and has directed the Chicago Cubs since 1966, when he returned to baseball after a 10-year absence.

Trevino wins British title

By RONALD THOMSON
MUIRFIELD, Scotland (AP) — Lee Trevino, still bubbling over his second straight victory in the British Open Golf Championship, admits that his great rival, Jack Nicklaus, is a better player.

By winning the British title Saturday, Trevino put an end—for this year—to Nicklaus' dream of capturing the first Grand Slam in modern golf—sweeping all four major professional titles.

Trevino survived a charge by the 32-year-old Nicklaus in the final round over Muirfield's 6,892-yard, par 71 links.

Then the man who calls himself "Super Mex" paid this tribute to Nicklaus: "I don't think I am in the same class as Jack. Nicklaus can be beaten, simply because nobody can win all the time. But to beat him, you really have to play well," Trevino said.

"There was no one in the field who could honestly say he was in the same class as Jack."

Trevino said he hoped Nicklaus would go on to win the Professional Golfers Association Championship next month at Birmingham, Mich., the last of the Grand Slam tournaments.

"Then I'll be known not just as the British Open champion but as the man who stopped Jack from doing the big one this year," Trevino said. "There's a kind of immortality in that alone."

Nicklaus had already won the 1972 Masters and U.S. Open and needed the British championship and the PGA to achieve the all-but-impossible dream.

Trevino picked up the winner's pay check of $14,300 with a 72-hole total of 278, six under par. His rounds were 71-70-66-71.

Nicklaus took second place, one stroke behind with 70-72-71-66-279.

"I rate my last round as one of the finest I ever played," Jack said.

His 66 matched the course record, set earlier in the week by talented young Johnny Miller and later equalled by Trevino.

In one of the most exciting finishes in the history of this ancient tournament, Nicklaus made up a six-shot deficit and at one stage actually overtook Trevino, the third-round leader.

Lee holed a chip shot from a green-side trap at the 17th for a par five that saved his title when it looked like it was slipping away.

Tony Jacklin, the young Englishman who held both the U.S. and British Open titles, was third at 280. Doug Sanders totaled 281 for fourth place, British.

LONG RANGE

Rick Barry holds the ABA record for most successful three-point field goal tries in a play-off game. He hit on eight three-pointers in a 1971 game against Virginia.

ish Ryder Cup star Brian Barnes was next with 283 and South Africa's Gary Player, winner of every major title in golf, had 285 for sixth place.

Nieko pitches perfect game

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP) — Righthander Joe Nieko was just as surprised as anyone else when he pitched a perfect game Sunday for the Toledo Mud Hens just one day after the Detroit Tigers handed him his walking papers.

"I just came down with the idea of pitching a good game," Nieko said after his 2-0 no-run, no-hit victory over the Tidewater Tides. "I never expected anything like this. I hope this opens people's eyes."

Nieko had just arrived in Toledo Sunday morning and signed his contract with the International League Mud Hens less than one hour before he walked to the mound.

Bengals coach predicts championship year

By BEN THOMAS
Associated Press Sports Writer

The tempo began stepping up over the weekend around the training camps of the National Football League; and from the lair of the Cincinnati Bengals, Coach Paul Brown said 1972 could be a championship year for his team.

"It doesn't mean I'm assuring the public now that we'll be in the Super Bowl," said Brown. "But it does mean we have the horses and the depth to compete for it."

He recalled his pledge when the franchise was granted to Cincinnati in 1968 "that in five years we could compete for any championship."

Returning veterans joined rookies at the Bengal camp in Wilmington, Ohio on Sunday.

Discussing the Bengals' division title in 1970 in the old American Football League, Brown said his team probably "overachieved, but it was an important step. It meant we were doing something right."

Brown, in talking to his players, repeated his long-standing edict that politics, religion and social issues have "no place in our football." But he said he was making one addition: "This is an election year. Cast your votes as citizens, for what you believe in. But don't bring your political beliefs into our football."

And Los Angeles Rams' newcomers on offense scrimmaged against a unit of rookie defenders from the San Diego Chargers. For the Rams, John Walton, on the taxi squad the past two years, threw two touchdown passes.

Pirates win double bill 3-2

By KEN RAPPOPORT

"We hit the ball and they caught it," said Lee May of the Houston Astros. "They hit the ball and it was in the hole. That's baseball."

No, that's the Pittsburgh Pirates. The Pirates use the home field advantage as well as any team in the National League—and Sunday turned it to their advantage again.

Base hits whistled through the infield on the hard, artificial surface at Three Rivers Stadium and the Pirates literally ran off with a pair of 3-2 victories over the Astros.

"I've never seen so many ground balls shoot through like they do for the Pirates," said Houston Manager Harry Walker. "Manny Sanguillen hits that ball on the ground and—boom—it's gone."

The Pirates killed two birds with the double triumph. For one thing, the East leaders moved 4½ games up on the second-place New York Mets, who lost a 7-3 decision to the San Diego Padres. For another, they dropped the Astros five games behind Cincinnati in the West after the Reds beat the St. Louis Cardinals 4-1.

Elsewhere in the National League, the Los Angeles Dodgers cut down the Montreal Expos 4-2; the San Francisco

Navy finds flaws in planes

By FRED HOFFMAN
AP Military Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Navy found 43 major flaws in test models of its new F14 fighter plane during a preliminary evaluation late last year, according to congressional testimony made public today.

Sixteen of those deficiencies related to safety. The Navy told a House Appropriations subcommittee that "corrective action is under way" and that a majority of the repaired aircraft would be ready for testing this summer.

This testimony, which also reported 75 minor problems with the F14, came during closed-door budget hearings last April. An F14 crashed into Chesapeake Bay June 30, killing its civilian test pilot. Navy sources said divers still are recovering pieces of the plane and that cause of the crash has not yet been determined.

The specific problems detected during evaluation flights by Navy pilots last November and December were referred to only sketchily in the April report to the House subcommittee. In addition, the congressmen were told that 10 deficiencies were found in the system controlling the Phoenix missile, the F14's principal weapon. Most of these problems, too, will be straightened out, the Navy assured the subcommittee. The F14 is designed to serve the Navy in fleet air defense and air superiority missions in the late 1970s and the 1980s. Despite Pentagon claims that the F14 is indispensable for the Navy in future years, the project has come under intense fire for congressional critics because of its escalating costs.

The Pentagon lists the price of an F14 at $16.8 million, up from $11.5 million last year. Sen. William Proxmire, D-Wis., claimed Saturday that the cost will be $20.8 million. Present plans call for an eventual purchase of 313 F14s. The Grumman Corp., builder of the F14, has notified the Navy that it is financially unable to build the next batch of 48 F14s unless its contract terms are improved. The Navy has taken the position that it has a valid contract and that it expects Grumman to perform under its terms.

Record is set by jet

WASHINGTON (AP) — The stiletto-like SR71 reconnaissance jet has set a record for sustained speed at high altitudes, and the two fliers who made the test are to get the top Air Force award. An Air Force citation said the needle-nosed craft was flown April 26, 1971 "on a record 10½-hour flight, a distance of 15,000 miles at speeds over Mach 3 and altitudes above 80,000 feet." Mach 3 is three times the speed of sound, or more than 2,000 miles an hour. The pilot, Lt. Col. Thomas B. Estes, 38, of Eubank, Ky., and the navigator, Maj. Dewain C. Vick, 38, now a lieutenant colonel, of Lorain, Ohio, are to receive the Mackay Trophy at a Pentagon ceremony Tuesday.

No comment!

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Government officials have declined comment on a Ramparts magazine article which says U.S. intelligence can pinpoint the location of Soviet military and space craft and monitor every transatlantic telephone call.

The Western White House in San Clemente, Calif., the Department of Defense in Washington and a spokesman for the National Security Agency at Ft. Meade, Md., would not respond to the article entitled "U.S. Espionage: A Memoir." The article, appearing in the August issue of the magazine which went on newstands today, is based on an interview with a man purported to be a former NSA analyst.

The ex-analyst, identified by a spokesman for the magazine as "Winslow Peck," a pseudonym—is quoted as saying flights over Russian territory are made routinely by jets "which climb high enough to reach the edge of outer space."

Prison quiet after riot

JESSUP, Md. (AP) — The Maryland House of Corrections remained quiet early today as officials tried to assess the situation at the maximum security prison following a 12-hour riot that left four guards and four inmates injured.

"It was the worst damage I've seen," said Gov. Marvin Mandel, whose agreement to meet with an inmate delegation finally prompted the last few hundred of the rebelling prisoners to return to their cells about 5 a.m. Sunday.

Many fires had erupted sporadically almost from the onset of the inmates' rampage. Officials said the trouble began Saturday evening with an escape attempt in the outdoor recreation yard.

Initial estimates of damage ran as high as $1.5 million. Mandel, after meeting with the inmate delegation, said he would look into some of the grievances. He said there were no demands voiced by the inmates. Specifically mentioned, the governor said, were the areas of medical service and the classification board, which assigns inmates to the various institutions within the state corrections system.

As of early today there were still no communications within the 1,500-inmate, predominantly black institution. However, State Police were maintaining a command and communications post on the grounds for the 25 or so troops on hand as a precautionary measure, a spokesman stated.

Several officials blamed a lack of guards and other alleged inadequacies for the uprising which prison officials admitted ran "out of control."

Football field is refuge for 4,000 leaving Belfast

BELFAST (AP) — Nearly 4,000 Roman Catholic women and children camped overnight in a football field after leaving their homes in a Belfast battle zone to protest the British Army's occupation of the area. Five more deaths Sunday pushed Northern Ireland's toll this year to 236 killed, already the worst since 232 died in sectarian battling in 1922. A land mine killed two British soldiers at Crossmaglen; a policeman and a civilian were shot in Belfast, and an 18-year-old youth died in a riot in Strabane. The Catholic women and children followed their priest, Father Jack Fitzsimmons, out of the Lenadon Avenue area Sunday claiming the army's show of force was "endangering their lives." The troops and gunmen of the Irish Republican Army have been squared off in the area since last Thursday. Despite army fears that the exodus was planned to clear the ground for a massive IRA attack, there were only sporadic incidents. Father Fitzsimmons and other community leaders negotiated until after midnight with British officials in an attempt to get the troops pulled out. Meanwhile, the women and children bedded down in the open or in tents at nearby Casement Park. They left their men behind to guard their homes against looters.

Opening lead—♥ J

By Oswald & James Jacoby

Jim: "We haven't written about safety plays for a long time. Why don't we discuss them this week?"

Oswald: "Why not? Let's start with a standard one. South considers bidding seven spades, but decides against it on the theory that if North holds the queen of spades in addition to his aces and king he will bid the grand slam himself. He wins the opening heart lead and is pleased to see that his restraint was the correct action."

Jim: "If South is at all careless he will lead a low trump to dummy's ace at trick two. East will show out and South will have to lose two trumps and his slam."

Oswald: "It is bad luck to find all four trumps gathered together in the wrong hand but it does happen. If South knows about safety plays he has a perfect one at his disposal here."

Jim: "He simply lays down his king of trumps at trick two. If both opponents follow he can't lose two trump tricks. If East shows out he can now hold West to one trump trick; if West shows out he can handle East's case."

Oswald: "This safety play costs little. South wins all the tricks any time the queen of trumps drops on the first or second trump lead."

Instead of rebidding three clubs, your partner rebids two diamonds. What do you do now?

Answer tomorrow

July is the month when your carefully tended lawn begins to look just as attractive as the weed preserve kept by the guy next door.

Marry in haste and repent at leisure.

ASTRO-GRAPH BY BERNICE BEDE OSOL

For Monday, July 17, 1972

In general: Share today with someone who wants to do something different. Meet new people. Don't waste time with those who are in a rut. Words to live by today: FLOURISH and FLUID.

ASTRO-GRAPH divides your horoscope into 6 sections. Use the letters and numbers under your sign. Numbers describe today's influences. Letters give the section. Circled number evaluates your hidden aspects.
